AMERICANS POUR GOLD FOR LOAN TO NATION

Treasury Department Confident of Over-Subscription as Reports from Districts Appear

AMOUNT TO BE FAR OVER THE MINIMUM

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Liberty day will see the $3,000,000,000 second Liberty loan over-subscribed by nearly half a billion.

This was the confident prediction of treasury department officials at noon today when reports began to come in from all quarters telling of a general loosening of purse strings all over the nation at the behest of the liberty loan workers.

And the hoped-for two-billion over-subscription, raising the total to $5,000,000,000, is expected by Saturday night.

At the opening of business today treasury department figures showed $2,465,000,000 worth of bonds had been subscribed. At least one billion dollars will be the total of today's bond sales, treasury officials believe. That will mean the over-subscription of the minimum figure set for the loan by half a billion.

With the minimum of $3,000,000,000 passed, liberty loan workers will renew their efforts during the last three days of the campaign for a over-subscription to the maximum figure of $5,000,000,000.

THREE SHIFTS OF 8 HOURS EACH AGREED

An outstanding feature of today's proceedings was the agreement by employers and the union labor organizations affiliated with the Iron Trades Council, for the introduction of a three-shift system of eight hours each and the abolition of all overtime. This is being worked out very satisfactorily in the east, Chairman Macey of the Mediation Board said, and it is his suggestion that an agreement be reached.

Chairman Macey of the Mediation Board, stated that the board was starting from the old scale, not considering the present temporary increase as it had not been made by them and did not stand sponsor to it. Flaherty then attacked the employers on a statement that a number of them were not holding to the temporary wage scale, but were employing men under its minimum in direct violation of the agreement made last month.

CANDIDATES WITHDRAW

Few elections have been held in Oaklands in which there has been so much confusion as in this recall, to almost the last moment at which nominating petitions could be filed to run. There have been candidates for a few days and candidates for a few hours. Men have announced themselves and then withdrawn. Others have been put up by their friends and have then stepped out.

The withdrawal of Leonard Moberly, general manager of the Atlas Imperial-Gas Engine Company, and candidate of the insurgents among the members of the Taxpayers League, came as a surprise today. Moberly, in withdrawing, gave no reason for having entered the race but announced that he was not going to run because he believed the recall had been instituted by the "old political ring." His statement follows:

"I am withdrawing as a candidate for mayor of the city of Oakland as I am convinced this recall manipulation is a conspiracy of the old political ring merely to 'get Davis.' I do not recognize such a move as a proper motive and I do not propose to contribute to the success of the scheme."

"I shall, therefore, do all possible to defeat this recall, which is against public interest at this time. I sincerely hope the people may sense the vicious purpose and prevent Oakland from again getting under the domination of the old political ring and save $30,000 for a second election."

It is feared that when his lordship speaks, after sampling them, he may be a little hoarse.

COURT ORDER STOPS RECALL OF FICKERT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—The Supreme Court here today granted a writ of review and issued a restraining order against the San Francisco board of election commissioners and J. H. Zemansky, registrar of voters, to prevent the calling of a recall election directed against Charles M. Fickert, district attorney of San Francisco.

Hearing on the case was set for November 6 at San Francisco. The petition filed here today by Fickert was immediately presented to the court in chambers at the urgent request of Fickert, who said in his petition that the election officials at San Francisco were to meet today to set a date for the recall election.

The other restraining further provides that in the calling of the election was certified, and it was expected it would be telegraphed to San Francisco and served there some time today.

Fickert alleged in his petition that many names on the recall petitions were forgeries and others were obtained under false representations.

PAYOUTS FOR PAST TEN YEARS ASKED

Flaherty jumped to his feet and said that the employers' budget was unfair, as a workingman was entitled to the same standard of living in 1917 as in 1907, and that if the working man could afford certain foods in that year at $4 a day he should be given an increase to permit him to purchase the same staples now.

Chairman Macey asked the employers to submit payrolls for the past ten years showing actual sums paid to various trades and not the averages of so much gross divided among so many employees showing a net pay of so much per man, and asked in addition that the employers furnish increase in cost of clothing, taxes, light, heat, etc., to the food budget.

They had prepared which shows an average increase of 46 percent over 1907, that the board might determine the actual increase in living cost to the working man in 1917 as compared with the previous ten years.

DAVIE WILL HAVE THREE OPPONENTS

Candidates in Recall Seem to Simmer Down to D. C. Dutton, A. B. Weeks, J. C. Taylor

Confusion in Time for Filing Nominating Petitions Precedes Several Withdrawals

Out of a field of a dozen possible candidates in the recall fight against Mayor John L. Davie the situation had simmered down early this afternoon to the certainty that there will be at least three opponents of the mayor in the fight. These are D. C. Dutton, a young attorney; Anson B. Weeks, head of a local fuel concern, and John Calvin Taylor, the Socialist candidate.

Joseph H. King, president of the Chamber of Commerce, whose friends fought to induce him to run, and in whose behalf certificates of nomination were obtained from the city clerk yesterday, today announced that he would not become a candidate.

Friends of Frank M. Smith, assemblyman and former city clerk, stated that there was some doubt whether Smith would remain in the race or withdraw. Smith was not at home, but it was stated there that he would make a definite announcement late today.

NOMINATING PETITIONS NOT YET RECEIVED

City Clerk L. W. Cummings had not received the nominating petitions of Taylor and E. B. Ernest, former secretary of the old taxpayers' league and one of the old recallists. In the recall, he had caused verification deputies to be sworn in, and were said to be circulating petitions. Taylor, the Socialist, had completed his work of getting signatures, and was ready to file, only delaying to make a careful inspection of the certificates for technical errors.

Friends of Dutton said he would file his petition today, in all probability.

According to City Clerk Cummings the candidates have until tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock to file their nominating petitions. This was Cummings' interpretation of the charter, he cautioned that it was not official and that if any petitions are filed tomorrow he will seek a formal opinion from the city attorney as to whether they are in on time.

The charter section bearing on the matter reads:

"A petition of nomination, consisting of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty individual certificates for one candidate may be presented to the city clerk not earlier than fifty days nor later than forty days before the election."

Cummings hold that the phrase "not later than forty days" includes the fortieth day prior to the election, which would be tomorrow.

KAHN GIVEN TRIBUTE FOR GOOD WORK

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Eulogized by Judge W. W. Morrow, Mayor James Phelan, Senator James D. Phelan, and former Mayor M. H. Murphy, honored by toasts, complimented with applause and presented with a solid silver tea and coffee service, Congressman Julius Kahn, dean of the California representatives in the national legislature, was the center of honor last evening at a brilliant banquet in the ballroom of the Palace Hotel.

Men of the universities, men of the church, of the press, and of the world of commerce were gathered at the hotel to join in the demonstration in recognition of the faithful and efficient services of the San Franciscan.

Tributes of colleagues who have worked with Kahn in the arduous sessions of the first war Congress were paid him by Senator Phelan and Congressman Irvine L. Lenroot, of Wisconsin. The tribute of San Francisco was voiced by Mayor Ralph and P. H. McCarty, while Judge Morrow, as toastmaster, presented the sentiment of the city which "was pledged by the five hundred guests that they stood to drink the health of the guest."

Save Russia, Kerensky Pleas Says Peace Is Lost to People

PETROGRAD, Oct. 24.—In addressing the preliminary parliament, Premier Kerensky appealed to the delegates to arouse in the people the same sense of individual responsibility at the front as in the rear and which carried Russia to victory for a time in the July post-revolutionary offensive. The premier deplored the present demoralization of the army.

"If only we could rekindle the enthusiasm of those July days in the heart of each man," he said, "we should have peace by Christmas, an honorable peace for free Russia with the war fought to an honorable end."

The premier talked for an hour, running the gamut of emotions from despair to hope. He was applauded on all sides.

"Russia is fighting for its existence," he declared. "The army in the trenches seems to have lost the sense of duty and honor, although at some places it is filled with a new spirit. The batteries on Oesel Island gave up without a struggle, while the little Dago Island forces fought bravely."

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 24.—The first wholesale escape of German prisoners occurred on the eve of Liberty Day. Ten prisoners of war, two officers and eight men, formerly members of the auxiliary cruiser Eitel Friedrich, escaped from the prison camp at Fort McPherson some time last night, it was learned today. The prisoners were not missed until the roll call this morning. A widespread search has been instituted for their recapture and Colonel Van Orsdel, commanding at the fort, has begun a full investigation to determine how the prisoners escaped. The Prince Eitel Friedrich prisoners recently brought here from Chattanooga, where several of them escaped at different times, will be recaptured.

Bloodhounds were placed on the trail of the escaped. Soldiers were given orders to capture the prisoners dead or alive.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Count von Bernstorff's secret representative in America, all his records and papers, constituted part of a rich haul announced by the secret service today. The representative was Baron von Rocklinghausen.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 24.—"This is Liberty day in the United States. Let us make it an ominous day for the Kaiser and not stop or falter until that infamous apostle of brutalized warfare is brought to justice."

This was the message of Secretary of the Treasury, which added that the American people on his arrival here in the interests of the Liberty bond sale.

"The Kaiser must answer for the crime of his unfeeling assassin in destroying the lives of seventy-seven brave Americans on the Antilles," continued the secretary.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The great Liberty loan day parade, which was to feature New York's final drive in the campaign to raise $1,500,000,000 through the sale of Liberty bonds, was postponed today on account of rain.

The embers of last night's Liberty loan fire had scarcely burned out when a violent rain storm swept down on the city from the northeast and officials in charge of arrangements for the day's celebration called off the great pageant until tomorrow.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Oct. 24.—"A ring" of New York financiers is hammering the government in its Liberty Loan campaign, endeavoring to make partial failure so that the next loan will bear a higher rate of interest, declared Speaker Champ Clark yesterday in delivering the principal address at the Liberty day campaign.

"And the mothers of this country, it is they who must bear most of the grief and the strife and the heartaches. They must offer their sons on the altar of their country. To them I say, 'Be of good cheer, other mothers in other days gave up their sons that freedom might live now that that freedom is in jeopardy; give your sons freely that freedom shall reign for all time. By the grace of God we shall win the fight so that democracy shall rule and Americans will enjoy the blessings of liberty and freedom.'

"For 102 years those rights of the seas have been respected, but on January 31, 1917, the Imperial German government served notice on our government that she would ruthlessly sink any American vessel that came within the limits on the Atlantic ocean prescribed by the German government. We broke off diplomatic relations, but when Congress adjourned

In his reply, Congressman Kahn said in part:

"We meet under extraordinary circumstances. Our beloved country is engaged in a great war. It is the fifth time in the history of our republic that we are fighting for our rights on the high seas. And we must win this war at all hazards."

"And the mothers of this country, it is they who must bear most of the grief and the strife and the heartaches. They must offer their sons on the altar of their country. "The San Francisco publicans, the Children's Hospital and the Woman's Exchange, all three philanthropies that owed their foundation in some cases, their advancement in others, largely to Mrs. M. H. de Young, sent large delegations to the funeral.

From the Children's Hospital, among many others, were Mrs. J. N. Walter, president of the board of managers, Mrs. Luis Lane Dunbar, secretary, Mrs. W. H. Illenthal and Dr. Langley Porter.

The Woman's Exchange which was a personal foundation of Mrs. de Young's was represented by Mrs. Edwin Breyfogle, president, Mrs. T. R. Edwards, treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Coleman, secretary, Mrs. Andrew Carrigan, Mrs. Adolph Unger, Mrs. E. S. Poulsen and others.

All departments of the Chronicle sent large delegations to the funeral.

POSSE KILLS MAN

CULBERTSON, Mont., Oct. 24.—Frank Stephens was shot to death in a saloon here last night and his slayer, Walter Patch, was killed at his home early today by a posse of citizens. Stephens put Patch out of his saloon and the latter returned with a shotgun and shot Stephens. Patch then barricaded himself in his home.

SENSATION CAUSED BY IRISH PLOT

LONDON, Oct. 24.—A sensation was caused throughout England today by the declaration of Premier Lloyd-George that the government has information of a plot.

According to the premier's announcement, which was made in the House of Commons, German plotters are in a conspiracy to foment civil strife in Ireland, as the Sinn Fein uprising in Dublin.

Lloyd-George named Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, as being in the conspiracy.

The statement was made in the debate on John Redmond's motion deprecating the Government's Irish policy as calculated to endanger the success of the Irish convention.

The debate was a strong one, due to the revelation by Premier Lloyd-George and Henry Edward Duke, Chief Secretary for Ireland, of the further German plan to land arms in Ireland. It also derived unexpected interest from light thrown on the progress of the Irish convention.

LLOYD-GEORGE SPEAKS PLAIN.

Lloyd-George, whose absence for a time during the debate had been strongly criticized by the Irish members, made a dramatic reappearance in the House and wound up the debate with a strong and outspoken denunciation of the Sinn Fein movement and of the propaganda of Professor Edward de Valera, Sinn Fein member for East Clare.

"There are three things," said the Premier, "the Government ought to make clear in the interests of Ireland: First, incitement to rebellion cannot be permitted. The Germans are armed and bound up the debate with a strong and outspoken denunciation of the Sinn Fein movement and of the propaganda of Professor Edward de Valera, Sinn Fein member for East Clare.

DESTROYERS' CREWS EQUIP FOR WINTER

BASE AMERICAN FLOTILLA, IN BRITISH WATER, Oct. 8 (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—All American destroyers and men are now prepared for the winter. Both have been equipped for the cold days ahead.

The issue of winter clothing to the men has taken place and the fast little ships have been thoroughly overhauled.

Thanks to the busy women at home who knit, many of the men have been provided with excellent sweaters, jerseys and socks. Now, however, an entirely new issue of extra heavy garments, designed by the British from their long experience on torpedo boats in the terrible weather off this coast, has been made.

LIKE ARCTIC EXPLORERS.

Here are some of the things, when donned, which will make the men look more like Arctic explorers than blueackets:

Helmets, made of wool and covering all but the eyes, nose and mouth; light coat sweaters, jerseys and cardigan jackets, knitted mittens and gloves; extra heavy cotton underclothing; lightweight woolen socks and knee length knitted stockings, besides heavy thick woolen socks for boots; leather sea boots; wind proof khaki-colored trousers; great coats lined with lamb's wool and knitted mufflers.

Over this clothing officers and men will continue to wear their kapok life jackets made in vest form. These vests, in addition to their life saving properties, are very warm. Pillows and mattresses on board their ships are made of the same material. The men also had oilskins when they came over.

The men face the coming hardships cheerfully. All they ask is that the folk at home do not forget them while they are facing the perils of fighting the submarine under the vastly new conditions of winter.

NEW FACTORS ENTER.

As to whether the winter aids or hindrances the U-boats is a matter of divided opinion among those in the British service who have had the experience of three winters. It is said a comparison of the figures will show that there is not a great deal of difference in shipping losses between the summer and winter season.

But this winter there are new factors in favor of the anti-submarine forces and against their prey. The most important is the addition of the American ships. Next is the all-around increase in effectiveness of the methods for dealing with the submarine problem. British and American experts here are confident that these measures will continue to show even more gratifying success in the winter months ahead.

RATES GO UP

HAVANA, Oct. 24.—Beginning November 1, postcard rates for letters from Cuba to the United States and its possessions and to Mexico as well as to the interior of the island itself, will be increased from two to three cents. Postcards will carry two cent stamps in place of one cent. These rates were established by presidential decree.

Battle Above, Below Ground Aisne Crest Shuts Out Germans

By Henry Wood,

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES ATFIELD, Oct. 21.—General Petain's pollus fought in the air, on the ground and literally and actually far beyond the underground fortress. There, there was a single tunnel, Cernillet, at which place the French first encountered this German rabbit warren system of defense—here there were three caverns.

Mondays night the caves on both sides of the ridge—German and French—were gorged with reserves, awaiting the result of the battle on the plateau. The entire ridge literally was alive, like a gigantic ant-hill.

Tuesday's drive was along a front of six miles. The French seized the last portion of the Aisne ridge, a little over two kilometers of the historic "ridge" junction (Chemin des Dames) with its highway on the Brussels highway, which the Germans still did not touch with 500 observatories.

The French are now masters of every spot on the entire Aisne ridge—from Vauxhall to Craonne—which heretofore formed the backbone of the German positions.

The battle was fought on the summit of this razor-back ridge. The northern slope of the ridge was in possession of the Germans and it slid away abruptly into the valley of the Ailette.

Every inch of these German positions was honeycombed with caverns, tunnels and subterranean quarries. Many were two stories deep, electrically lighted and ventilated. Every one of them the Germans had converted into a veritable underground fortress. There, there were three caverns.

Then came a simultaneous rain of projectiles of the great French 400, 380 and 320-millimeter guns smashing the entrances to tunnels and caverns, caving in those near to the surface and actually shaking the ground like an earthquake.

Countless French airplanes wireless regulated every shot so accurately that one battery fired five shots from a distance of six miles, all five of which struck successively in the same hole, penetrating a subterranean fortress.

Calomel Users! Listen To Me! I Guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone

Your druggist gives back your money if it doesn't liven your liver and bowels and straighten you up without making you sick.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous calomel when it comes into contact with sour lime, erases much of its irritating effect. This is when you feel like vomiting. If you do vomit, and all kneel out, your liver is torpid and bowels constricted. What ails the doctor now?

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel when it comes into contact with sour lime, erases much of its irritating effect. This is when you feel like vomiting. If you do vomit, and all kneel out, your liver is torpid and bowels constricted. What ails the doctor now?

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constricted waste which is always causing you trouble. It breathes life into your liver just like a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone to a child.

Heres my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get for a few cents a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the soul of calomel because it is real liver medicine, entirely vegetable, therefore it can't irritate or make you sick.

I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless, doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Advertisement.

S. P. REFUSES TO GRANT DEMANDS

GERMAN CAUGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24—"I'm a German and I'm loyal," said Rudolph Schultz, 19, today following his arrest for writing treasonable signs on sidewalks in the hotel district. He came here from Germany recently and says he is a butcher and an I. W. W. Some of his signs read "Germans, help your fatherland" "Danger in France—keep away" "Germans, stuck up for your country."

A Pound of Whole Wheat contains 1700 calories, says the chemist—but it doesn't contain any calories for you unless you can digest it. It is what you digest, not what you eat, that supplies nourishment for the day's work. It is a time to cut out expensive foods that generally contain little nutrient. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent whole wheat—nothing wasted, nothing thrown away. It is real man-power food. Two or three of these little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk and fresh fruits make a nourishing, strengthening meal at a cost of a few pennies. Made in Oakland, California.

STRENUOUS ROLE

Douglas Fairbanks is foolish to work so hard when he doesn't have to, unless perchance he is unlike other mortals and enjoys work.

His newest picture, "The Man From Painted Post," which was produced by G. E. Gaylord, has suggested although not to the committee, that a compromise might be effected whereby piece work would be substituted for regular pay and the discharged members of the union return under that arrangement. This compromise will not be accepted by the union as the members are opposed to the piece work system. Gaylord is quoted as saying that the demand for a 20 per cent wage increase cannot be granted, as the company recently increased the wages from 7 to 12 per cent.

EAT WHAT YOU WANT WHEN YOU WANT IT

People who consistently deny their appetite are often considered as being especially to their palate, because indigestion has always meant subsequent suffering. This is not the strong statement, but it is a fact, however, that most people can, without fear of distressing consequences, indulge the appetite within reason if the bowls are clean and regular.

Heavy dinners and suppers can be enjoyed with impunity if, before retiring, one will take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Peppermint, composed of the aromatic herbs with peppermint extractives sell for fifty cents a bottle. Gentle in action and positive in effect, it regulates the bowels in a safe and effective way, without griping or other discomfort, and is the ideal family laxative. Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup and keep it in the house. Use it occasionally and you will find you can eat almost anything you like without fear of consequence. A sample bottle can be obtained free of charge by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 456 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

BAIL FORFEITED IN LOTTERY CASES

Chinese lotteries have been doing a thriving business during the last two weeks, as evidenced in the results of two raids conducted by the police late yesterday when two joints were visited and nearly 50 players gathered at the net in addition to three alleged vendors of tickets.

Bail in the amount of $140 was deposited for the sellers and players and with the exception of $900 for the sellers, was forfeited when the cases were called in police court today. The other cases were continued and jury trial may be asked for.

Twenty-five players were taken in the raid at 331 Eighth street by Lieutenant Bert Curtis and posse. An Wing and Bert Curtis, members of the posse, obtained free of charge by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 456 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

PRETTY GIRLS PREFER "LIFT" TO BARBER SHOP

A beautiful elevator girl has a better chance to meet and marry a millionaire than a beautiful manicure girl.

That is why the face of the manager of the barber shop at the Hotel Oakland has been the picture of gloom ever since Manager Carl Sword installed girl elevator operators as a "war measure." For the manicures have been asking for places on the elevators—and a pretty girl's smile can work wonders with a hotel manager—wherever most of them got what they wanted.

The elevators are popular. The barbershop manager has new manicure girls now, but he notes their envious glances toward their elevator-running sisters. The latest recruit from the manicure parlor took her place in an elevator today, when Miss Alice Hills "switched jobs."

BAZAAR TOMORROW

Christmas gifts will be offered in quantities by the members of Aloha Parlor, No. 106, of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, at the two-day bazaar which is to be held in the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets tomorrow and Friday nights.

PLAN CABARET

Oakland Lodge of Moose is rapidly completing plans for the celebration of the seventh anniversary of the lodge, which will be held next Friday evening, with the giving of a cabaret night. Only professional talent will take part and the program promises to be even better and bigger than last year, which was attended by nearly a thousand members of the organization. Patriotic features will be included in the program. Every form of entertainment will be secured. The cabaret will be for the members only. A special committee has been placed in charge of this year's affair and consists of H. R. Elder, E. J. Greene and Lou Cordes.

TWO INVOLVED IN DRAFT SUBSTITUTES

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—The report of alleged draft frauds in the 34th coast artillery, wherein certain wealthy young Italians of San Francisco evaded service by the purchase of substitutes, is being investigated by the Army Intelligence Bureau of the eastern army department. It was learned this morning that at least two are involved, one of whom is said to be a "bounty jumper" who appeared as a substitute for a prominent young Italian of North Beach, then deserted and reappeared again in the Latin quarter for a second engagement.

Colonel Donald L. Lucas, chief of the Intelligence Bureau refused to deny or affirm the fraud this morning, but it is rumored that its ramifications extend into other corps and nationalities. A thorough investigation is being made, particular attention being made to the Italian contingent irregularities in the twenty-fourth exemption district.

The cases parallel in some degree the bounty jumping frauds of the Civil War, and army officials here are determined to stamp out every kind of graft.

A photograph of one selected by the draft board will probably be attached to their identification cards, especially where the drafted man does not speak good English.

ORPHEUM PARTY WILL AID NURSES

Because their members are busy and have no time to knit or sew, and yet because they feel that they must do more than their duty to the Red Cross funds, the Alameda County Nurses' Association, Inc., have planned a big benefit Orpheum party for next Monday evening. A small portion of the proceeds will be turned over to the Nurses' National Relief Fund, which has been founded that those of the profession who are disabled through service may be financed for a little while.

Each year the county association has given a benefit for themselves, purchasing valuable building site and accumulating $10,000 for a clubhouse. Having heard the call of the Liberty Loan, $8,000 of this sum has been invested in government bonds for war purposes.

The 500 members of the organization, together with all the student nurses in the several hospitals and the assistance of the medical men of the vicinity are giving all their energy to make the Monday night house a record breaker. The regular Orpheum show with the third in the series of war films will be offered. Mrs. Amos W. Evans is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The officers are: President, Mr. Augustus Sellender; vice-president, Miss H. D. Bell; directors, Mrs. Evans, Miss Kate Credon, Mrs. Mark L. Emerson, Miss Elizabeth Wilson, Miss Minnie Taylor, Miss Linda Dunn, Miss Ethel Sherman, Miss L. P. Moore. The president of Fabiola Hospital Association has taken a box and will entertain a party of friends. Mrs. Isaac Requa is making up another theater party for the evening. Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook is reserving one of the larger boxes for her guests. Others who will entertain boy parties are Dr. A. S. Keyes, Miss Kate Credon, Miss Minnie Taylor, Miss Mary L. Hall. Tickets may be purchased from members of the association, at the box office or at the county headquarters, 801 Thirteenth street.

HOUDINI FUNERAL OF DR. WILLS' FATHER

The funeral of the late W. S. Wills, father of Dr. C. A. Wills of the Alameda county infirmary, was held this afternoon at Byron, where the deceased has been a resident since 1872. Interment was in the family plot. The death of the pioneer occurred suddenly at Santa Cruz Monday, where he was visiting relatives.

Wills was a native of Carterville, Illinois. He was born March 1, 1818, and came to California in 1853 with his father and engaged in farming in the northern part of the State.

In 1858 Wills moved to Antioch and resided there until 1853, when he moved to Byron.

He is survived by a widow, who was formerly Miss Lucretia L. Roberts, and four daughters, Mrs. W. H. Hoffman and Mrs. S. E. Hurley, both of Byron, Mrs. Bohm and Mrs. Eugene Hoag of Santa Cruz.

He was a brother of Mrs. J. Rio Baker of Martinez, Mrs. W. W. Morgan, Brentwood; Mrs. M. A. Smith, Brentwood; Mrs. F. W. Robbins, Oakland; Mrs. Robert Chandler, Oakland; Oliver P. Wills, Cottage Grove, Oregon; Dr. C. A. Wills, Oakland, and Mrs. C. W. Lent of Placerville.

John L. Sullivan on Overeating. John L. Sullivan, the ex-pugilist, says that more people die from overeating than from any other cause. He also says that in the case over there, No wonder that so many people are troubled with indigestion. If you have trouble with your stomach about 10 a.m. to 12 noon, take a spoonful of baking soda. Then if you should have indigestion take Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. For sale by Osgood Bros. drug stores. Advertisement.

JIMMY DISCOVERS A PIECE OF LACING TUCKED UNDER THE COVER AND GOES THE LENGTH OF THE FIELD FOR A TOUCHDOWN

By P. FOX

Copyright 1917 by the Wheeler Syndicate Inc.

A wedding of unusual interest to the younger set of the bay cities is that of Miss Reba Hoff and Robert Sinclair, which is to be celebrated tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gibb of San Francisco.

The bride-elect has shared honors at many of the informal teas and luncheons which have been given this month for east bay brides-elect. Miss Hoff will have as her only attendant Miss Hazel Thoma, herself a bride-elect, and the best man will be a brother of Sinclair's, Brevard Sinclair, who is coming from his home in Fresno. Only the immediate family and closest friends are to be guests at the marriage ceremony and the wedding supper to follow.

Rev. R. C. Brooks, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Berkeley, is to be the officiating clergyman.

A number of out-of-town relatives and guests will be present tomorrow evening at the Hoff home. Among these will be Mrs. J. A. Gibb of Honolulu, who has come from the Islands to attend her brother's marriage; Mrs. L. A. Warrington, an aunt of Miss Hoff, has come from Los Angeles, as did her grandmother, Mrs. R. J. Dutson. Of the men of the family, Uncle Sinclair has come up from Brevard and two other brothers, Brevard and Malcolm Sinclair, have come from Fresno. So that the occasion has brought about a general reunion of the two families.

Miss Hoff has received many beautiful gifts from friends afar and near. Among these is a chest of old family silver. The most valued gift received by the bride-elect is a brush copy of the old daguerreotype. This is of the family home of Katherine Poe, Miss Hazel Thoma, herself a bride-elect, who was a cousin of the late Edgar Allan Poe, poet.

The old family home in Baltimore has been one of the landmarks for generations in that vicinity, and it is of this gift that Miss Hoff is extremely proud, sent to her by her aunt, Mrs. L. G. Schroeder.

Miss Hoff has planned her wedding along very simple lines. The color scheme is to be in green and gold. Her wedding gown, though extremely simple, is of lovely design, the material of imported organdie, embroidered. She will wear a short bridal veil of tulle and complete her costume with a shower of white bride's roses and lilies of the valley. But the most important part of the wedding costume will be the rare old fashioned Duchesse lace, which was carried at the wedding of the bride-elect's great-grandmother, her grandmother and her aunt. Even the linen is homespun, and this dainty heirloom will be carefully tucked within the bride's shower bouquet.

Allison Williams is to be gowned in pale green satin georgette, trimmed in gold lace flounces. She will carry a shower of yellow rosebuds and fern.

After their honeymoon Sinclair and his bride will go to San Benito county, where the former is superintendent of the mines in that section of the mountains below Hollister. A pretty bungalow has been erected for the couple and there they will make their home for a year or more.

A Halloween luncheon is to be given Wednesday, October 31, by Mrs. William Mattagno (Ethel Graham) at her home in Redwood City, will be attended by a number of Oakland belles, who will go up for the affair. Mrs. Mattagno is a bride of but a few months and has been visiting for a day or so in the bay section.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsden Manson are to be the guests of the Misses Manson of San Jose avenue, Alameda, having come down from their country place near Stockton. Mrs. Manson formerly made her home in Alameda.

An hour or two at ten nowadays no longer means that one is to be permitted to greet one's friends for a bit of conversation. At present the up-to-the-minute hostess sees to it that the hours are not idly spent. Knitting teas are much in vogue and it was to one of these that Mrs. Harry Ham-

Allison Williams invited a group of friends yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Williams has opened in her own home work rooms for her friends who either devote their time to Red Cross work or knitting for the men of the army or navy. Yesterday a meeting was held to raise funds for the Berkeley Chapter of the American Fund for the French Wounded. Some of those who called were Mrs. Charles Mills Gayley, Mrs. Henry Martiney, Miss Anna Head Mrs. Frank Stringham, Mrs. L. C. Duff, Mrs. Fletcher Armes, and Mrs. Charles Bancroft.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Whittlesey formally announced yesterday the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Pauline Whittlesey, and Lieutenant Irving Crowell Jr. of New Jersey. The bride-elect is now a sophomore at the University of California. She was graduated from Miss Ransom's school in Piedmont. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The former home of the bride's parents was in Montclair, New Jersey.

Lieutenant Crowell is a graduate of Yale University and son of Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Crowell. The wedding is undecided.

One of the large teas of the month is that for which Mrs. George Hammers has sent out cards for October 30, when she will compliment Miss Elsie Posey, the fiancee of Robert Murray Hunt of San Francisco, and Miss Ida Henshaw, the betrothed of Alexander Allen to officiate and Miss Dorothy Cawston is to be maid of honor.

rons and girls will be included in the receiving party.

Miss Ida Henshaw is to become the bride of Merrill Dow, November 21, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Henshaw, of Alameda. Alexander Allen is to officiate and Miss Dorothy Cawston is to be maid of honor.

Twenty enlisted men are entertained at Camp Lewis, American Lake, on Saturday the Young Women's Christian Association will formally open its "guest house," the latest of which has yet to be built under the present war service scheme. Three weeks later in San Diego, another cosy, necessary "hostess house," will swing wide its doors for the comfort of the women, the wives and mothers and sisters who are serving near them as long as possible and the girls who find in the uniform dreams and realities. It is the men from the bay cities from all homes of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, who have been sent to train in these camps. It was the story of the camps, with their hardships their temptations and their loneliness which was told yesterday by Miss Ruth Scithwaite, who was in charge of the women who were entertained at luncheon at the headquarters at 470 Thirteenth street.

"My goodness me!" shouted Uncle Wiggily as he started to run into the smoke-filled kitchen he went, and he saw Nurse Jane flapping her paws up and down, and trying to get at the oven to put out the blazing pumpkin pie which had caught fire from the stove.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" cried Nurse Jane. "This is an awful fire! Call for the engines! Call for the firemen! Call for the police!"

"Calm yourself!" said Uncle Wiggily gently. "There is no need for all this excitement."

"But the fire!" cried Nurse Jane. "Who will put out the fire?"

"I will," cried brave Uncle Wiggily. "Watch me."

With that he dropped one melon on the floor.

"Squash!" It went and the water in it splattered all over the kitchen as the melon broke open, putting out part of the fire.

"Squash!" went the other melon, when Uncle Wiggily dropped it, and as the water inside that splattered around it put out the blazing pumpkin pie.

"There you are, Nurse Jane," said Uncle Wiggily. "Now you may go on with your cooking and I'll get more melons for Grandpa Goosey. I have plenty."

The contribution of Galtland to the national plan has already been a splendid one, a though largely personal. Miss Julia Davis, who has given $10,000 for the San Joaquin Indians, while its long low bogs, has stood the office expense in completing them. She has volunteered the same sum for any other. The contribution of Galtland to the national plan has already been a splendid one, a though largely personal. ## THE WAR SITUATION.

Secretary of War Baker's weekly resume of events of the war contains the intimation that the usual winter season of inactivity will be omitted on the allied front in France and Belgium. His statement carries the assurance that the Entente Powers have produced the necessary implements and supplies for winter warfare and that the battle front will be kept replenished. No "winter quarters" will be established.

This means that the trip-hammer of Haig and Petain will be kept driving at the enemy without rest, with the American forces in all probability participating. The German general staff will not like this news. Hindenburg, one of the world's best-known satiric retreaders, had hoped for an early cold spell to relieve the tension against his right wing in the west. It has been hard-pressed all summer, breaking here and crumbling there. Only the most profligate waste of reserves has sufficed to plug the gaps, and even then the repaired line always has been behind the original front.

Moreover, information from various sources, both allied and German, unquestionably show that the stamina and the morale of the Huns has greatly deteriorated. The British and French commanders realize the importance of denying time for recuperation and if it is possible to keep up effective fighting during the winter months, they are certain to do it.

During the first three years of war comprehensive fighting stopped with the coming of the rains and snow. This probably will be the general rule this fall and winter on all European fronts but the western line. Movements in Russia must soon come to a standstill, and little more of importance can be expected this year in the Trentino, the Julian and the Gorizia sectors. Something may be attempted on the Balkan front, but the danger of torrential rains and unfavorable climatic conditions generally leave activities in this area a matter of speculation. In Asia the best season for military movements is just beginning and comprehensive efforts may be expected from the British in Mesopotamia and Palestine.

ONE YEAR'S ACHIEVEMENT.

At this usual closing time for the summer and fall campaigns the question may well be asked, "What have those of 1917 accomplished, and what is their promise?" An admirably comprehensive survey of the situation was contained in the leading article of last week's Literary Digest. We quote the following:

"As the summer and fall campaigns of 1917 draw to a close we see the Entente Allies dominating the military situation by land, sea and air, with the Central Powers on the defensive everywhere except on the Russian front. Even there the Teutonic troops are apparently unable to take advantage of the opportunity offered by Russia's internal confusion."

That this was written before the recent German naval and land offensive in the Gulf of Riga does not alter the force of the conclusion. The net result of the German operations around Riga may be fully summed up as a painful misfortune for Russia; so long as the Russian line holds, no matter how thin it becomes, or how far it retreats, Germany can win no advantage by penetrating further eastward. An offensive army must still be maintained over longer lines of communication.

In this connection, the Literary Digest quoted Secretary of War Baker as saying that "the ascendancy in the West has passed to the Allies . . . who have adopted the policy of wearing down the enemy by attrition until the force of American arms can make itself felt in the field."

Several facts are behind this optimistic view. The U-boat campaign against merchant ships has utterly failed in attaining its strategic goal. While destroying a vast tonnage of ships and cargo, it has made absolutely no progress toward starving England into submission, which was to be the only measure of its efficacy.

Von Tirpitz, Von Capelle and Member Goethien of the Reichstag have admitted there is no discernable disposition toward peace on the part of England, and the latter confesses there is "no hope of crushing Germany's enemies on land." It is also pointed out that, in the view of the French High Commission to the United States, "Germany has made her supreme military effort . . . and for the first time since the beginning of the war a clear decrease in the total strength of the German forces is on record." At the same time the military strength of the Entente Allies is greater than ever and is capable of substantial further increases, toward which it is now progressing largely through the activities of the United States.

On the west front the supremacy of the Allies in the technique and efficiency of war is indisputable. The army chiefs have demonstrated their ability to take any part of the German lines, up to a given length, any time they wish, and no power Hindenburg has been able to muster has proved able to stop them. "It is on the western front that the tradition of German invincibility has suffered the most shattering blows."

The psychological importance of these blows can not be over-estimated. They mark the beginning of the day of disillusionment for the German people, when the criminal arrogance and the dangerous falsity of their leaders will be fully exposed. They help to account for the various baits which Berlin recently has thrown out for discussion of peace terms now. The fear that sooner or later Germany must make terms under an allied victory is very great.

German military leaders, statesmen, savants and journalists have all through the war shown a colossal ignorance of the state of mind and the physical power of the peoples which Germany has attacked. Particularly is this true with reference to America. Whether these leaders and spokesmen were shamming does not matter; they are about at the end of their rope, and their ruthless repudiation of every sentiment and right of civilized humanity cannot have been greater than the popular repudiation that must soon be their fate.

BASIS FOR PEACE HOPE.

These considerations and the vast military projects which the allied countries, especially America, now have under way make the situation appear more favorably for the Entente Allies than at any time in the past. This is the result, however, of titanic united effort. Peace with victory over the Hun is the only peace that can be trusted to endure, and the encouraging outlook of the present is an exhortation to greater effort.

Nothing in the military situation today justifies the hope that the war will end this year, although some men, ignoring their judgment in favor of a kind of intuition, may look for an early peace. But another year of such fighting as has been witnessed on the western front during the last six months, and of the kind for which we are now preparing, ought to make the Germans not only willing to talk about peace, but ready to plead for peace.

The time is at hand when this country must strike with all its force. Every citizen is in duty bound to cooperate in every available way in giving weight to the blow, the blow for "a victorious peace" which shall make the world "safe for democracy."

INTERCITY POSTAGE.

When the section of the new revenue bill fixing the new rate of postage goes into effect next week the residents of the three largest cities in Alameda county will have occasion to observe the mysterious ways of Congressional legislation as it is interpreted by the postoffice department. If there is a tendency to accuse the department of pernicious inconsistency, it should be remembered that it is ruled by a traditional disposition to be as technical as the law will permit and to ignore simplicity and common sense.

Under the new rate it will cost three cents to send a letter from Oakland to Alameda or to Berkeley, and from either of the last-named two cities to Oakland. The distance may be only from Sixteenth and Broadway, across the Webster street bridge to the Union Iron Works on the south side of the estuary, but it will cost three cents. At the same time a letter mailed in Oakland will be carried to the San Leandro city line for two cents. It will be delivered to any other point in Oakland for two cents, but not over that imaginary line that divides Oakland and Berkeley without payment of an additional cent.

The rule of the postal department with reference to the eastbay cities that the three cents postage must apply when a letter is addressed to another "postal district" would be little less reasonable if it applied to letters between two different voting precincts in the same city. The cost of the service in one case is not greater than in the other.

"Our country is and has been since its foundation a land of boundless opportunity. Have you prospered here? Then give all you can—in the hour of your country's need—for her welfare, which will fare at this very moment is vitally at stake."—Representative Julius Kahn.

There were only 100,000 subscribers to England's first war loan of $1,750,000,000. To her last loan of five billion dollars there were over eight million subscribers. Nearly four million persons subscribed to America's first Liberty Loan. How many will subscribe to the second Liberty Loan?

The government intends to decorate every soldier wounded in battle with a badge of red, white and blue ribbons. Let every citizen who can buy a Liberty Bond in honor of the soldiers and sailors now,

NOTES and COMMENT

There won't be so much criticism of Billy Sunday when he employs his peculiar language to properly stigmatize the Hun. It fits in that application.

* * *

The voice from the food director of Illinois is not only a warning but epigrammatic. "The people will either save and serve with Hoover, or they will stand in line with meat cards, as they do in Germany." The country is certainly being brought to an attitude of listening to Hoover.

* * *

Those who go to the war are doing their duty if they do not perform otherwise. But here are members of four regiments contributing $268,400 to the Liberty loan. Such patriotism should be rewarded by the publication of the names of the regiments—which were the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Sixty-second and Sixty-third United States Infantry. They subscribed in sums approximately equal.

* * *

Judge Oppenheimer was not exactly regular in permitting two fighting brothers the alternatives of buying a Liberty bond or contributing $200 as a fine, but just at this time his action will not be challenged. It adds to the loan, and incidentally ought to put the quarreling relatives in a conciliatory mood. By the way, it is not a bad precedent to follow in such cases.

* * *

The Chico Enterprise foresees hardship for postmasters: "The increase in letter postage will work an awful hardship on some postmasters—they will have so many more postcards to read."

* * *

Obituary notices of "Bob" Fitzsimmons are many and not all uninteresting. To have been the greatest pugilist the world has produced, at least as to the number of battles fought and won, is something to make note of. He figured in 375 ring contests, nearly all of which he won.

* * *

A wheatless day has been announced on Southern Pacific dining cars. These wheatless and beefless days are easy here in the land of abundance. Hardship is not experienced if you have to substitute chicken for beef for a single day, nor if you ingest appetizing gems baked from the flours and meals of other grains instead of white wheat rolls. And if it saves food for use abroad there is the savor of having performed a duty.

* * *

There may not be that sympathy for the women who get arrested and jailed for picketing the White House that there might be if account were taken by them of the times. The President and his advisers have great problems to solve, and an intelligent recognition of this fact, it seems, would suggest that agitations such as those mentioned above should be deferred till matters so much more vital to the nation had been cleared away.

The Santa Rosa Republican is not impressed. "Some way that talk about peace without indemnities sounds still less convincing as we read in the despatches of our transports sunk and our men drowned by the silent assassins of the sea."

* * *

Lloyd George sees no peace signs. And unfortunately his sight must be considered good. More need, then, to come on with the bond purchase.

* * *

It is discouraging that there are boys in this day and age and city who would be guilty of such wanton mischief as that perpetrated at the Longfellow school. Such spirit, if it might be thought, would be civilization out of the human race by this time.

* * *

Chillipepper fish having been challenged as a desirable food, Food Director Weinstock essays through an advertisement to give it a reputation. It must be said that after reading its recommendation, as set forth after the manner of a cook book, it seems appetizing.

* * *

The Chicago Tribune indulges in the cold-blooded observation that there are a dozen different kinds of ukuleles, and whenever you hear one you always wish it was one of the other kind. Why is it that the world is so contemptuous of this perfectly harmless instrument?

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

The State that produced Franklin K. Lane for the Interstate Commerce Commission might reasonably have expected to be again recognized when the time came to make new appointments. Especially in view of the fact that San Francisco is the principal transportation terminal and ocean port on the Pacific. The President has been singularly inept in the matter of appointments in many instances, some of them of protuberant importance.—Santa Rosa Republican.

After Assistant Farm Adviser Watson had been assured of twenty cars of hogs for the Farm Bureau's Kansas City hog special, coast buyers, alarmed at the situation, bought up most every available hog in the valley at prices ranging from half a cent to one cent per pound over those in effect before the special project was launched. The action of the many Los Angeles buyers, who have suddenly become very solicitous of the welfare of the Imperial Valley hog raiser, has given the Kansas City hog special a temporary setback.—Holtville Tribune.

The Ukiah cannery of the Lake County Canning Company has completed the canning of its beans. There will be in the neighborhood of 35,000 cases. The cannery had orders for about 40,000 cases. It is proceeding now with the canning of spinach, and will turn out about 20,000 cases, packed in gallon cans, the 2,000 cases equalling about 5,000 cases of beans as to bulk. The cannery is also negotiating with the new Healdsburg cannery for tomatoes, and several hundred tons will be canned if they can be obtained at satisfactory terms. The Healdsburg cannery is swamped with tomatoes this year.—Lake County Bee.

A SERMON ON DETAIL

The completion of the Quebec bridge after two disasters marks a triumph in bridge engineering, yet the ultimate success of this project has rested not so much on a spectacular struggle with well-nigh insurmountable difficulties, as in more or less prosaic effort to perfect the details of this great structure in all its parts. The story of this ill-fated project is a sermon on the importance of minute care in detail, since both of the disasters which befell it were brought about through oversight of seemingly minor features.

Complaint was made that it had taken thirteen hours for a letter to travel from San Francisco to Oakland. According to THE TRIBUNE correspondent, the letter was mailed the evening before at midnight and did not reach its destination until 1 o'clock the following day.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

Westerners attended the funeral of George M. Pullman, the car magnate, at Chicago. His estate was estimated at anywhere between $25,000,000 and $100,000,000.

Nickel-in-the-slot operators were preparing to fight the action of Oakland's mayor and council in licensing the fortune machines.

The Annexation League held a meeting to protest paying double taxes—part to the city and part to the county. Members claimed that a judicial decision rendered at the time that the city became part of Oakland made them exempt from a county road tax of 3¢ cents.

LET YOUR DOLLARS FIGHT FOR HUMANITY

THOUSANDS ON PARADE ACROSS BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—The city of the Golden Gate threw wide her portals today, and with the martial strains of patriotic music in the air and the flash of the Stars and Stripes athwart the autumn sunlight, marched 25,000 strong along the streets in thrilling observance of the nation's Liberty Day.

The display was a kaleidoscopic spectacle of color and enthusiasm. For three long miles the pageant strung forth, an ever moving line of drumming feet flanked by eager faces waving flags which hung from every cross wire and building and fluttered in every hand, and rolling cauldrons of smoke.

Liberty loan boosters and Red Cross nurses, Boy Scouts and Columbia Park lads, drill organizations and marching clubs, marines from British and other foreign crusaders, rookies from Goat Island, swung out from the ferry building up Market street and past the reviewing stand on Van Ness avenue, division after division. With them went long lines of khaki-clad lads from the Presidio, fraternal orders in the odd uniforms of their various crafts here and there field artillery and other accoutrements of war.

COUNTY RAISES HALF QUOTA NEYLAN'S SPEECH BALES FACTS

An overabundance of dollars has rolled into the banks of Alameda county for Liberty bonds:

But the goal is yet far distant. The total to date does not exceed five million and a half! And the minimum amount which Uncle Sam expects from Alameda county citizens is ten million dollars!

Today is Liberty Day, set aside by President Wilson. Why not celebrate it by buying a Liberty bond? Go to any bank in Oakland tonight before 10 o'clock and by your name on the national roll of honor.

And when you have received the Liberty bond button and pinned it on your coat or vest or your shirt waist, touch your friend and neighbor on the shoulder and say: "Where's your button?"

What is your answer to your country's call?

John Francis Neylan, member of the National Food Commission under Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator, spoke at the mass meeting of citizens in the Municipal Auditorium yesterday. Neylan did not mince words. He stood out direct from the shoulder. He hit fair and square. He put the issue before the people bluntly and firmly.

IT'S FOR "THE BOYS."

"The boys in khaki—your sons, your brother, your neighbor's sons and brothers—have enlisted in the battle for democracy. They have pledged themselves to fight under the flag—your flag and my flag—Old Glory, the flag that has never yet bowed in defeat, the flag that was born in trial, the flag that was consecrated by the blood of Lincoln.

"They go to France shortly (some of them are already there) these boys

—the pick of American manhood—to fight and, God willing, to die for their country that those great principles of human rights—liberty, equality, freedom—may always live. They fight first for America, for what America stands for, and they fight second for the freedom of all mankind everywhere. And you are asked to do your bit here at home by loaning your government money at 4 per cent per annum. The time has come when we must make sacrifices that freedom and justice and right might prevail."

In the meantime the Liberty loan campaign committee has settled down for the final three days of the big "drive."

The largest individual subscription received today came from Frederick Stahl, who invested $50,000 in Liberty bonds through the Central National Bank. Another subscription reported by this bank was that of the Shredded Wheat Biscuit Company of California for $50,000.

The Security Bank raised its total to date to $88,000, including the $50,000 invested by the bank itself. The largest investor was Josephine M. Johnson for $20,000.

In working with the employees of the Owl Drug Company, it made it easy for them to become bondholders by accepting small weekly payments until the bond is paid for, after which it is turned over to them without deduction for interest. The company subscribed for $100,000 worth of the first issue and the employees invested approximately $25,000.

When other contemplated purchases are made, the combined investment of the Owl Drug Company and its employees will probably reach a quarter of a million dollars.

The Taft & Pennoyer Company maintains a liberty bond bureau for its clients, and as an aid to the Liberty Loan Committee, W. H. Thiele, who is in charge, reports the following subscriptions, totaling $16,450:

A GREATER NEWSPAPER FOR GREATER OAKLAND

MARCH FOR LIBERTY IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Oct. 24.—"We must win this war," said President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California. "We will not, we cannot fail," said Congressman J. Arthur Elston, in urging support of the Liberty Loan as one of the principal means to secure victory, in addressing a Liberty Day celebration at the Greek theater today in which all Berkeley participated.

The great demonstration at the Greek theater was part of a celebration which started with a street parade in which thousands of the citizens, military, students and school children joined. Classes at the University were suspended for the afternoon to enable the students to take part, and schools, places of business and municipal offices in Berkeley were closed.

MAMMOTH PARADE FORMS

Marched by members of the Chamber of Commerce, who arranged the Liberty celebration, the paraders lined up at Shattuck and Center streets at 2 o'clock and marched to the Greek theater. Participating in the parade were 500 University of California cadets, 300 students of the United States School of Military Aeronautics, 3500 school children carrying flags, civic, military and educational authorities and thousands of citizens in many automobiles. Disbanding at the Greek theater the paraders joined the vast crowd gathered there for the celebration.

Speakers were President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Vernon Kellogg, chief aide of Herbert Hoover in Belgian relief work; Congressman J. Arthur Elston and Sergeant A. Blinnman of the Canadian Expeditionary force.

Music was furnished by the University Glee Club.

President Wheeler, who presided, in his opening remarks said: "We must win this war. The way open for us is this hour and moment to help win the buying of these bonds. If they are not good, nothing is good and we might as well lie down and die. There are two plain sides to this conflict. On one stands the system which believes in the freedom of man from above and outside. We stand for the law and not within the law."

WE WANT TO ELBOW ROOM.

We believe in elbow room and elbow room is freedom. We have fought all our days as a nation for the freedom of the seas.

We have come to realize that the methods of the Central Powers cannot be tolerated."

Congressman Elston said in part:

"Victory is certain. I have just come from Washington and I am giving you my profound conviction gained from official sources that the outlook for victory could not be better."

The people must now do their part. To fail would spell disaster. At this time we are not even asked to sacrifice anything. We are asked to serve by saving."

BLOCK IS BURNED

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 24.—Fire, which started in the paint room of the Tulsa Decorating Company, destroyed the three-story Ohio building, in which it was located, and spread to the Mayo building, adjoining, the largest office building in Oklahoma, causing a property damage estimated at more than half a million dollars.

James Constantine, proprietor of the Palace Office Supply Company, who dashed into the burning building against the protests of firemen, believed to have been burned to death.

Several women and children were rescued from the Ohio building.

PAIGE COMING

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Charles S. Paige of San Francisco, newly appointed member of the shipping board, will arrive on Friday to take up his duties. For the last week Paige has been investigating labor conditions on the Pacific Coast. He will make a report to Chairman Hurley.

It is now expected that the details of the agreements drawn up between employers and employees in Pacific Coast shipyards will be made public by the end of the week.

CALL ON WILSON

DENSE FOG SLOWS UP FERRYBOATS

Settling down upon the bay at midnight, the heaviest fog of the season interfered with the ferry service this morning and caused many a commuter to arrive at his office with an apology for tardiness. Both the Key Route and the Southern Pacific boats were running in place of the regular two-hour run seawards, and the trips across the bay were made under a slow bell.

This cautious speed increases by ten minutes the usual time for making the passage. No accidents were reported, although there were several narrow escapes from collisions in the misty mist.

ALAMEDANS RALLY FOR LIBERTY DAY

ALAMEDA, Oct. 24.—The City of Alameda made Liberty Day a general holiday, particularly so after a meeting at which a patriotic program was given at the new Pioneer school and the girls audience enjoyed the program with a long list of bond subscriptions.

Men and women who to date felt themselves unable to subscribe to the patriotic cause, however, were stirred with the patriotic feelings and enthusiasm of the audience.

The following have been exempted from the same division for physical defects: Robert L. Cook, 5110 Moreno street, Arthur W. Blackall, 4320 Webster street, George W. Pratt, 2857 West street, John Barnes, 2201 Telegraph avenue, Manuel Pimental, 1215 Thirty-fourth street.

Boy Scouts served as escort for the speakers from Park street to the school building. All of the stores, drug and banks were closed for the afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS.

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A Small Bottle of "Danderine" Keeps Hair Thick, Strong, Beautiful:

Girls! Try This! Doubles Beauty of Your Hair in a Few Moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff. Falling hair and scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be a few weeks' use, when you see how hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy just soiled cloth with Danderine and carefully draw through your hair taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that has been neglected or injured by previous treatment—then, all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

COLE CAR WINS MT. DIABLO CUP

BY EDMUND CRINNION.

By setting a high gear mark seventy-seven feet further up on the last steep pitch from the summit to the rocky pinnacles on the extreme peak of Mt. Diablo than the best previous cup holder's mark, a Cole Eight car driven by L. A. MacLean won possession of the coveted TRIBUNE-Mt. Diablo high gear trophy Monday.

The car was examined yesterday by a committee of four automobile officials and certified to be a strictly stock car and possession of the cup was officially made. The committee examining the Cole Eight comprised the following: Wayne Corbin of the Haynes car house, Ben Hammond of the Kisselcar branch, W. A. Rawlin of the Marmon agency, and Lele M. Newhall, the Knight engine expert.

The mark set by the Cole Eight car driven by MacLean is a stiff one for competing cars to go against practically sets a high watermark for the highest powered cars built.

By winning the coveted TRIBUNE-Mt. Diablo high gear cup the Cole Eight proves itself the best gear marking title that goes with the possession of the cup? The TRIBUNE-Mt. Diablo cup is a perpetual challenge cup offered strictly for the car making the best high gear showing on Mt. Diablo carrying four passengers or a passenger weight totaling 705 pounds.

The cup has been won four times by various high powered stock cars and with each succeeding victory the high gear mark on the mountain is set just that much higher and each succeeding victory means just that more power in the car making it. The Cole Eight car is only the second Monday but also set record for the distance it beat the previous cup holders seventy-seven feet further than the last mark and to those who know just what that means on the last steep pitch from the parking station on the summit to the extreme rocky pinnacles it is significant of an enormous reserve power.

In the car Monday as officials and observers were, besides MacLean, who drove and the writer, who observed the event for THE TRIBUNE, Ed Rodgers of THE TRIBUNE and L. M. Goffin.

To make up the required 705 pounds a heavy load was added to the car burden and in addition Roy Wilford of the R. T. Wolford Motor Company rode in the car as far as the summit and jumped out there in order to give the car a chance at the record with no more than the regulation weight. With all its load the Cole car rammed all of the way up the Meridian mountain without the faintest trace of effort on the part of the brawny motor. Mount Diablo represents a climb of practically 3367 feet from sea-level in about twelve miles of winding roadbed, which is a delight to the motorist using a second gear, but a bugbear to the car that must pull in high.

The Cole car made the climb from the Walnut Creek avenue side and after passing through the toll gate in high gear it reached its final record mark at the summit without having had the gear lever removed for a single instant. Its victory was a clean-cut one and the car is entitled to a lot of credit.

The gear ration of the Cole Eight car that made the climb is 4.51 to one, according to the finding of the committee of inspection.

The roadbed at the summit is at the very best and it is more than likely that competition for the possession of this will be extra keen in all the winter rains and in all probability it is expected that the old altitude record established before the cup was up for the climb will be broken by some of the competitors. Previous holders of the TRIBUNE cup were: The King Eight, driven by George Seely; the Stearns-Knight Eight, driven by Pat Gleason, and the Haynes Twelve, driven by Wayne Corbin.

HUSBAND'S BROTHER IS LUCKY MAN

Mrs. Della B. Fitting, widow of the late Harold Fitting, has become the bride of her brother-in-law, John Fitting, according to word received by friends of the family here. The ceremony was performed a few days ago in Fremont. Mrs. Fitting is a sister of Glenn Barnhart, a local advertising man.

Harold and John Fitting were comrades from boyhood, going through school together, being graduated both as civil engineers, from Stanford University, and traveling together. After Harold Fitting married, his brother lived with him at his home in Alameda.

The brothers were caught in an elevator accident in the California-Pacific building in San Francisco in 1915, in which eleven other persons were injured, and in which Harold met his death. John became the protector of the family, and it was no surprise to friends when news of the wedding was given out. Mrs. Fitting was recently awarded $15,000 in a suit brought as the result of her husband's death.

DISPUTE; POISON

As a result of taking poison this morning at 11 o'clock, Mrs. A. Scherman, age 34, 1279 Sixty-fourth street, is at the Roosevelt hospital, where she is not expected to live. Her husband works at the Union Iron Works in San Francisco, was notified and hastened to the bedside. Her husband attempted suicide was occasioned by her despair because of statements he made to his husband and his friends over the war. The woman is the mother of five children. First aid treatment was administered at the receiving hospital by Dr. N. X. Ashley.

FIVE YEARS IS GIVEN SOLDIER

Special to The TRIBUNE.
CAMP LEWIS, Oct. 24.—Dishonorable discharge from the National Army for forfeiture of all pay and allowance and confinement at hard labor for five years was the sentence imposed upon Eno R. Larsen, drafted man from San Francisco, tried by court martial at Camp Lewis for failure to submit to physical examination. The sentence and approval by Major General H. A. Green were announced today. Larsen will be confined at Camp Lewis for the present, but eventually will be sent to the United States disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, or Alcatraz Island, California.

men and women were arrested here today by military authorities charged with attempting to sell drugs to soldiers in the camp.

Authorities declare those under arrest comprise a ring that planned to sell dangerous drugs on a large scale to the troops. The prisoners will be court-martialed.

The military authorities have been aware for some time that some one was peddling drugs at the camp and have been making a rigid investigation. According to Major M. Y. Croxall the case against Smith and his associates is now complete. A contract has already been entered into between the syndicate and a priate for the delivery of drugs worth $1,000 and the military police alleged they obtained possession of the correspondence and a considerable sum of money which changed hands in the transaction.

Smith is declared by the police to have a long criminal record in Seattle, San Francisco and Vancouver, B. C., and that he was arrested for selling the drug act in Vancouver in 1912 and forgotten his ball. He is about 26 years of age. The women who were arrested gave their names as Virginia, Davenport, 20, and Helen Brown, 24. They were fashionably dressed.

Before a wildly enthusiastic audience of 4,000 soldiers of the new national Army assembled in the open air, Alma Gluck, the famous American soprano, gave a song concert this afternoon, ending with the Star Spangled Banner, which was taken up in mighty voices by the entire crowd. Alma Gluck is one of many well known musicians who are giving their services freely for the entertainment of the soldiers and sailors.

There were great toasts in Camp Lewis to Liberty Day. Even the needed construction work on the buildings was halted while the carpenters and other workers observed the President's proclamation.

"FAT" L'HEUREX IS VICTIM OF POLICE JOKE

William Leheurex, ex-champion amateur heavyweight, now wielding a hefty pen as editor of Judge Quinton's court, whose name is, according to the French, "Fat" L'Heurex, which, translated, means joviality and good humor, or something like that, doesn't know whether to live up to the interpretation and remain good-natured or go back into training and beat a lot of people up. This is why:

Yesterday he drove up to the Y. M. C. A. and went inside, leaving a little black grip in his car. The grip contained a number of papers important in connection with matters in court. When he came out a few minutes later the grip was gone. Very much disturbed, he notified the police, who, in turn, informed him that he had been conned and that he could pay $1.00 the amount for which it was pawned. He gladly paid, and to his surprise, the pawn merchant, Captain Charlie Bock and others asked him to join them in a perfectly friendly drink. It was not easily made clear to "Fat" that the police themselves were the culprits, and that he was in fact buying the drinks.

HOLD BAZAAR

The annual fall bazaar of the Swedish Lutheran church, corner Tenth and Grove, began today under auspices of the different organizations of this church. Many beautiful and artistic exhibits of fancy work and arts can be seen and will be for sale.

The bazaar will be held tomorrow and Friday from 3 to 5:30 p. m. and each evening, when there will be a short musical program and speeches. Refreshments will also be served.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Rev. N. P. Auseen is pastor.

WIFE WINS SUIT

Mrs. Anna de Franka yesterday was given a divorce from her husband in Judge Koford's court on her answer and cross-complaint in the action. De Franka brought suit for divorce, alleging cruelty, claiming that she was in the habit of entertaining and being entertained by other men. She denied the allegation and set up cruelty on the part of her husband, and on her supported testimony received the interlocutory decree. Mrs. De Franka was represented by Attorney Harry D. Wise.

“FILM STAR HAS MANY TROUBLES”

The life of a comedian, he is the highest rated comedian in the world, is not all India rubber and smiles, as evidenced by the troubles which have overtaken Charlie Chaplin, famous laugh-maker, who received word today that the British authorities have refused to issue passports to London to his mother and a former theatrical manager, Alf Reeves, who was to handle some of his productions in Los Angeles.

Chaplin's mother is ill in health. Reeves was bringing her to this country, to see his son whom she has not seen for five years. Chaplin arrived from the Orient yesterday, expecting to go on to New York, where a reunion was to have taken place. Now the reunion has been interrupted. It is thought that the action of the British authorities is only temporary.

Charlie Chaplin's arrival in San Francisco might easily be written into a scenario, entitled "The Lost Wedding" and enacted by the world's most expensive comedian himself, for he touched "an American port" on the west side of San Francisco Bay yesterday en route to Los Angeles from Honolulu, overstepped at a hotel, missed a wedding and worried a bridal party nearly to distraction.

Chaplin, who has been filming a new production in Kauai where the wild leis and ukuleles grow, came home on the steamship Matsonia. While on board he gave a dinner to J. Kanika Evans of Honolulu and his fiancee, Miss Virginia Sanford of Pittsburg, who were married yesterday. At the dinner it was announced that Chaplin was to be the best man.

The wedding was staged as per intention yesterday. But Chaplin failed to appear. Affairs were delayed as long as possible with the comedian doing a two-foot impersonation of a sleeping pajama boy, snoring peacefully in his room at the St. Francis Hotel, wotted not of weddings. Some time after the ceremony was over he awoke with a start, remembered his engagement and dashed to the scene, but there was no scene, the bridal couple having left on their honeymoon without Charlie's blessing.

"I guess it was an oversight," remarked Mayor Davis, later, when the incident was being discussed between council members and spectators who observed the situation.

The $250 will be taken from the bailiff's deposit fund, a fund that has accumulated for many years, representing bail put up by defendants and not withdrawn. This sum is a single item, according to Auditor Clay, the exact source of which is not known. He stated that it will be advisable to have legislative action taken to provide for its incorporation in some more flexible fund in the future.

Commissioner Edwards suggested the purchase of the bonds and made the motion that action be taken. Commissioner Jackson seconded the motion and suggested that as much extra money as possible be put into the bonds.

"No form of investment is worth more than a government bond," he said.

TO LIGHT BOOTHS

For the first time in the history of any municipality in California, and possibly in the whole nation, the booths used at the Davis recall election on December 4, will be lighted with electricity, under plans now being considered by City Clerk L. W. Cummings and Frank A. Leach, manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Under these plans the city would acquire the wire sockets and lamps necessary for use in the tents and the company will arrange for the connections. The wiring can be so arranged that it may be used in future elections.

This will be the first election held in Davis in the month of December in the city's history, according to the authorities.

SINGERS SCORE

The triumph of two Oakland girls, Miss Ida L. Merchant and Miss Leona M. Merchant, was the feature of the ninth concert of the San Francisco Municipal Orchestra under the direction of Erick G. Schiller. An audience of some seven thousand gave a suitable ovation to the young sopranos after they had concluded the duet from Bellini's "Norma," and forced them to respond twice with encore numbers. Their voices rich in timbre, carried perfectly to all parts of the auditorium. The Oakland public will have an opportunity to hear them on December 1, when they will appear in the title roles of Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" in the Auditorium Opera House.

PAYS FOR LANDS

Condemnation proceedings instituted by the city last year for the purpose of obtaining land for San Pablo Avenue and Fifty-sixth street for a branch library have been concluded.

Payments entered have been satisfied by the city paying the amounts. The amounts paid are: Patrick Cahill, $16,034; Emma F. Cahill, $516,64; Mary Wenig, $8,700.33. The amount paid to Patrick Cahill was less by $459 than the amount awarded. The money or the library was donated by Andrew Carnegie, and a special assessment district was formed for the purpose of providing maintenance.

WINS PENSION

Mrs. Delphine L. Tenney of Albany has been granted a teacher's retirement salary of $50 per annum for disability by the State Board of Education at Sacramento.

The state board has also granted high school credentials to the following Berkeley teachers: Mrs. Olive M. Hand, Winifred Kittridge, Catherine Pawling and Mrs. D. Shoaf.

Mary S. Semis of Oakland was also granted a high school certificate.

FLAT FEET AND TIPS ADMITTED BY COMMISSION

Flat feet and tips have received official recognition from the State Industrial Accident Commission of California, which has decided that tips are a legitimate portion of a waiter's pay and is now wrestling with flat feet as a possible basis of a claim for damages.

The tip system came before the State body by Julius Wettler, a former employee of the Old Heidelberg grill, who was injured in a collision with a steam table. The State Commissioners overruled the objections and ordered the full compensation of $11.2 a week paid on the basis of $120 a month, derived mostly from tips.

The flat feet problem has been brought before the state body by W. J. Burris of Sacramento, an employee of the Phoenix Milling Company, who claims he contracted the trouble while walking on the company's concrete floor.

MARSEILLaise IS CAUSE OF SCHOOL ROW

Students Told Not to Stand to Sing French Hymn; Teachers in Dispute Over the Order

Principal Says He Did Not Give Order; French Instructor Refuses to Comment, but Arises

BERKELEY, Oct. 24.—Is the "Star-Spangled Banner" to be the only song honored by a standing ovation, or are the national airs of the Allies to be similarly complimented? That is a question which is agitating the student body and the faculty of the Berkeley High School, following an incident yesterday afternoon when Miss Ottilia Abendroth, supervisor of music, requested the school assembly to remain seated while "La Marseillaise" was being sung. Although the order was given by the students only a score or more of voices stood up, the song and voices of the teachers arose defiantly, left their seats and walked to the rear of the auditorium, where they stood during the singing.

Among the teachers who stood was Mrs. Louise Narjol Howard, head of the French department, and with them arose several women visitors at the exercises.

WAS INNOVATION.

The expression of respect to France involved in standing for "La Marseillaise" was an innovation of the students themselves when the song was first rendered in an assembly after this country's declaration of war. This was again done in a recent patriotic program. Yesterday when its strains were started by the school orchestra, Miss Abendroth, who directs the chorai work, made the unexpected and unexplained request that the boys and girls remain seated. Her direction was greeted by a moment of silence, after which the objecting teachers arose. The song was taken up in a half-hearted fashion by less than half of the student body.

Parents of the students, who made inquiries as to the reason for the action of Miss Abendroth, were supplied with the rumor that she was under orders from Principal C. L. Bleenbach. This is denied emphatically by the principal, who said this morning:

"GAS" GOPHERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—With gophers and skunks as the enemy, the army at the Presidio went to war yesterday in deadly earnest. The enemy was routed with chlorine gas fumes, the attackers suffering only one casualty. Lieutenant Harrison Cockrane, assistant to the adjutant in charge of the attacking squad, came in contact with a gas leak from one of the tanks and was overcome. During the night he recovered.

declared Mrs. Howard. When asked what she implied by military discipline, she refused to enlarge on the subject, remarking: "Just what it means."

PACIFISTS ARE ARRESTED, BUT FREED AGAIN

After spending a short time at the Central police station, the Rev. John Sykes and two members of his religious sect, which were released last night for lack of evidence to hold them on a charge of uttering alleged seditious remarks during a street meeting at Eighth and Grove streets.

With Rev. Sykes were Mary Campbell and Mary Shipley. They were taken into custody by Sergeant Jack Thornbury on complaint of residents in the neighborhood who reported that violence might be done the trial if they were not arrested. At the police station the propagandists were closely questioned by the matter was referred to the Department of Justice in San Francisco. Don Rathbun, in charge of the Federal forces, ordered their release on the grounds that there was not sufficient evidence to hold them. Berkeley residents have complained that Sykes and his followers are in the class of "conscientious objectors" to army duty.

DEALERS RAISE PRICE IS CHARGED

Allegations by Edward H. Benjamin, assistant to State Controller Ralph P. Merrill, to the effect that fish and poultry dealers are taking advantage of the meatless days" to raise their prices on those days from 20 to 25 per cent are not based on any complaints made by Oakland hotel managers and restaurateurs. Inquiries this morning failed to find instances of attempted extortion on the part of local dealers.

"The hotel and restaurant men," stated Benjamin this morning, "remind me that they are being regularly held up on the days when meat is not served.

Dealers at the Fish Market by the State Fish Exchange are a joke. The fish markets pay no attention to them, or at least find some way to evade them. All over San Francisco and Oakland the fish dealers are charging more than the legal prices. I have yet to find one that is living up to the law."

The success of the meatless days in the bay region is assured, according to Benjamin, who states that sales of beef and other meats have fallen off in marked fashion on the days selected.

GAS GOPHERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—With gophers and skunks as the enemy, the army at the Presidio went to war yesterday in deadly earnest. The enemy was routed with chlorine gas fumes, the attackers suffering only one casualty. Lieutenant Harrison Cockrane, assistant to the adjutant in charge of the attacking squad, came in contact with a gas leak from one of the tanks and was overcome. During the night he recovered.

declared Mrs. Howard. When asked what she implied by military discipline, she refused to enlarge on the subject, remarking: "Just what it means."

NEW BUREAU IN SCHOOLS IS PLANNED

Chamber of Commerce Paves Way for Big Step Forward in Conservation of Energies

Survey of Physical and Mental Requirements Will Be Made as Basis to Govern Students

Plans for the establishment of a vocational guidance bureau for intensive educational development of school children in elementary, grammar and high schools, along lines for which they are best fitted, were made last night by the board of directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. Formal adoption of recommendations submitted by the educational committee of the organization paved the way for what is regarded as a step forward in the conservation of human energies.

Pursuant to the plan outlined in the session, blanks are to be sent to all industries, corporations and companies connected with the Chamber of Commerce for a survey of the physical and mental requirements of various positions under their control. This survey will be used as a basis for a determinate curriculum of education designed to prepare students for various activities along sane and scientific lines.

Nicholas Ricciard, vocational guidance director of the Oakland public schools, addressed the directors, outlining the methods by which such vocational guidance work is to be undertaken. The school scheme calls for the observation of students through their early school years and the placing of them in courses to which they are best adapted in the upper educational strata. Out of the city's registration, 900 students dropped out of school between the eighth grade and high school, said Ricciard, last year. According to statistics which he quoted from National Commissioner of Education Claxton, the average earning capacity of such students was $500 per annum, while high school graduates were able to earn an average of $1,000.

The board of directors requested all members of the Chamber of Commerce to co-operate with the bureau in supplying industrial information for the purpose mentioned.

FIRST FREE PORT SOUGHT IN OAKLAND

Government May Try Hamburg System Out Here as Result of Conference on Harbor

Big Possibilities for City in Move; Would Mean Vast Development of Waterfront

Preliminary steps toward securing recognition of the east bay district and possibly Oakland's western or estuary waterfront for the establishment of the first American Free Port are under way today by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce as a result of the conference of harbor, maritime and federal interests in San Francisco yesterday, called through Congressional desire.

Oakland was represented at the conference by Manager Director Joseph E. Cain, George C. Purdon, V. O. Lawrence, G. E. Daniels, E. E. Field, Captain R. M. Henningson and Joseph R. Knowland of the commercial body. The conference was called at the instigation of William Kent of the Federal Tariff Commission, who is making a national survey at the request of the ways and means committee of Congress.

Pursuant to the plan outlined in the session, blanks are to be sent to all industries, corporations and companies connected with the Chamber of Commerce for a survey of the physical and mental requirements of various positions under their control. ## SAN FRANCISCO OUT.

This large acreage eliminates San Francisco from consideration as a free port possibility, according to J. J. Dwyer, chairman of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners and make necessary the selection of some other site around the bay if Congress decides to establish such a port here. The acreage available is not one of a national character and not a local development, according to Dwyer, makes it imperative that the same considerations of national use be considered as in the selection of a naval base.

Among the advantages which are noted as incident to the establishment of such a port are included: Re-exportation facilitated; minimum cost of repacking and sorting; maintenance of trade samples without duty; shipment of goods to foreign ports quickened and cheapened; expedite discharging and reloading of vessels; increase shipping facilities; reduces freight handling and damage charges.

T. S. Stephens, of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners, who represented Governor Stephens declared the latter favored the establishment of such a port.

LEGAL CHANGES ARE APPROVED

Recommendations by the laws and legislative committee pertaining to queries submitted by the United States Chamber of Commerce were approved by the Board of Directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce at their regular meeting last night.

One recommendation providing for the federal regulation to all railroads, the establishment of a general railroad incorporation law and equipping the Interstate Commerce Commission with power to regulate state rates where they interfere with national rate rulings was unanimously endorsed. The second resolution calling for federal regulation of prices throughout the country during the war period was rejected as unnecessary legislation.

Reports from the Oakland body and other organizations throughout the country will be considered by the United States Chamber of Commerce on October 27, and the majority opinion announced.

W. W. Chapin, publisher of the Oakland Enquirer, was appointed by the chamber directors to succeed G. B. Daniels, resigned, as a member of the Harbor Development Committee. D. V. Mahoney, former district attorney of San Diego county, was appointed to succeed A. E. Carter, absent on war duty at Camp Lewis, as a member of the laws and legislative committee.

The directors also decided to forward the baseball suits of the Chamber of Commerce team to the boys at Camp Lewis for amusement equipment.

FOR U. S. POSITIONS

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination for stenographer and typewriter, open to both men and women, to be held Friday evening, November 9, at the postoffice building in San Francisco. Applicants may take the examination for either the departmental service in Washington, D. C., or for the local field service in San Francisco and vicinity. It is believed that the opportunity to take the examination in the evening will allow many persons who are regularly employed during the day to enter the examination.

Application blanks and further information may be obtained from the secretary of the Twelfth Civil Service District, room 241 Postoffice building, San Francisco.

HOLLAND IS AIM

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 24.—The view of Admiral von Tirpitz, former German minister of marine, that the seizure of Belgium was the stepping stone in extending control over Holland was proclaimed by Herr Bacmeister, the National Liberal leader in the Reichstag and one of the Pan-German stalwarts, in a speech delivered Sunday at Hamburg.

Pants Sans Camouflage; That's What America Faces!

No Cuffs, Belts or Furbelows—for Uncle Sam Says Save Cloth

Oh, we may not like the simple stripes, stripes, napless, beltless, blouses, Form of clothing that we buckle round our hips;

But the war has made us useless, beltless, clothesless, waistless, And we're ready that we're not wearing kilts,

(Thanksgiving song.)

Where are to be the trousers of yesterday? Fashion, war-censored and more arbitrary than usual has cast the mould of fancy and the glass of form this winter in startling lines. For frills and furbelows, flap-doodles and fancies, which have heretofore run amuck in male attire, are to be conspicuous by their absence.

SAN FRANCISCO OUT.

This large acreage eliminates San Francisco from consideration as a free port possibility, according to J. J. Dwyer, chairman of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners and make necessary the selection of some other site around the bay if Congress decides to establish such a port here. The acreage available is not one of a national character and not a local development, according to Dwyer, makes it imperative that the same considerations of national use be considered as in the selection of a naval base.

First and foremost the festive cuff which has adorned the bottom of the trouser leg, gathering saus and dust, catching on shoe-hoops and lending the air-distinguishing to many an otherwise ungarnished calf, is to be stricken from the calendar for lack of evidence. The belt which started out in life as a modest strap around the human equator and has been growing from year to year, into a huge embellishment, is also to be no more.

The fancy vest which gathered in the ribs, shoved up the chest and shut off breathing except under the most rare conditions, will be divested of its fancy linings, its fancier buttons, its complicated mechanism of pockets, draw straps and corset-like attachments. In its place will be the simplest of garments modeled on a hybrid design between a Carmelite hair-shirt and a dill-pickle basket.

The reason lies in the necessity for saving cloth, which is a need.

It is not necessary to be eliminated. That means the decline in the crop of tailored garments and the demand for ready-made articles of wear. The women have already met the situation. They are wearing open-work stockings—to save threads of course—perforated waists for the same reason, and skirts even shorter than before—if possible. It is now the turn of the men.

GIRLS FROM SEATTLE TO TALK STRIKE

Telephone Operators Here to Present Demands for Union Recognition; Ask Conference

Status of Threatened Strike Saturday May Be Known Tomorrow; Charter Asked for

Whether, or not a general strike of telephone operators and electrical workers of the telephone company will go into effect at midnight on Saturday probably will depend upon the result of a conference to be held tomorrow between Mortimer Fleischhacker and a delegation of unionized telephone girls, who will arrive at 6:50 o'clock this evening from Seattle and Tacoma to present their demands for union recognition. According to John Morgenstern, president of the Pacific District Council of Electrical Workers, recognition by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company of the girls' right to organize will be a condition prerequisite to any agreement between the electrical workers and the company.

The Seattle and Tacoma operators are sending representatives to present the rights of the employees to the company officials, and this conference will be held in the presence of Fleischhacker as Federal mediator. Definite announcement of results is expected tomorrow afternoon or Friday morning.

Morgenstern declares that a sufficient nucleus of operators has been formed among the employees of the local exchanges to warrant applying to the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers for charter. Such an application has already been made to headquarters in Springfield, Ill., he asserts, and the necessary documents will be here within a week.

The union then will be formally organized and officers elected, after which efforts will be made to induce all the operators to join the organization.

Operators in Los Angeles were the first to organize in California and apply for a charter. Another local union was formed in Bakersfield last Saturday with a membership of thirty-five.

EXPECT ARREST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Word of the arrest of the Rev. Vasily Dvornikoff, temporary pastor of the Russian Orthodox church of the Transfiguration, indicated by the County Grand Jury on a charge of stealing $19,000 belonging to the Rev. V. V. Alexandrov, permanent pastor of the cathedral, is expected by the police today from Buenos Aires. The priest has been traced to the South American city and the necessary steps taken for his apprehension.
